Passion: The Bridge between People and Purpose

Wednesday May 10th
8 AM Pacific Time Zone

Partner Gratitude:
Spiritual and Statistical motivations

We know it is important. We say it is important. We never say it isn't important. So why do we sometimes/many times lack in our follow-through to show real, honest, and caring gratitude to our partners?

Please join me on Wednesday, May 10th at 8 AM Pacific Time and let James Golder from Bloomerang and Rick Fritzeimer from Multiply 417 encourage you with both some spiritual and statistical motivators to stay on top of your desired plan to show thanks and gratitude for your partners/donors.
